A. H. McLain, Care of Sayer Studio.

G. W. Cleveger has decided not to stock up heavy with furniture for the present but will take orders for anything desired that is not in stock, giving the customer the benefit of the wholesale prices.

E. W. VanValkenburg was over from Ontario the first of this week on land business. Mr. VanValkenburg is now making his home in Ontario as he finds his health much better there than in the higher altitude.

Prof. Scudder and Prof. Reynolds, with County Agricultural Shattuck, have been holding meetings in different parts of the county this week. They returned from the southern part Wednesday evening and Prof. Scudder reports conditions quite favorable. In fact the substations established by the college are in best shape they ever have been.

A. E. Fraser of the Malheur Mercantile Co., at Ontario, was here during the week meeting with his many friends and looking after business interests. Mr. Fraser is always a welcome visitor and finds something good to say about our country every time he comes. His firm does quite a volume of business with residents in the outlying sections of this county.

SHOP TALKS

by

SCHWARTZ

My talk this week will be mostly a SHORT SHIRT TALE

I have on hand about 85 golf shirts ranging in value from $1.00 to $2.00 each. They are slow sellers, and I need the shelf room, so I am going to get rid of them at the nominal price of

35c. each

or Three Shirts for $1.00

You'll have to hurry to get these, because they won't be here long.

REMEMBER

I am still selling harvest shoes for $2.50 and $3.00 per pair. They are sure world beaters at the price.
